School Lunch Program Review

Food Services Director, Sharon Dixon, and Data Management and Projects Specialist, Bob Hickey, presented a review of the school lunch program. There was discussion on the costs of food, the waste, the kinds of food served, and how the program might be improved.

The following suggestions will be looked at: having a breakfast program at the Primary School; having a salad bar and charging by the pound at the High School; looking at the need for salads at the Middle School; monitoring the flow/time of the lines at lunch and avoiding bottlenecks.

Mid-Year Financial Report

Assistant Superintendent Donn Davis updated the Board on where we are at the mid-year point in our budget.

REAL School Vans – Lease/Purchase

Assistant Superintendent Donn Davis explained to the Board the need for newer vans for the REAL School and the opportunity we had to do a lease / purchase on three used vans.
